—⊗— NOTES. ⊗—

The Royal Burgh of Ayr, the capital of Ayrshire, is situated at the mouth of the River Ayr, the town and county receive their name from the River Ayr, a name which is probably a survival from the old times of the Strathclyde Britons, signifying in Cymric, "the gentle water." Distant about 30 miles S. S.-W. from Glasgow, and by rail 74 miles S.-W. from Edinburgh. The spot has been inhabited from a remote antiquity. It was the site of a Roman Station, and it has been ascertained that a hamlet remained here until the year 1197, when William the Lyon engrafted a new town upon it, which about the year 1202 he constituted a royal burgh.

In ancient times Ayr was distinguished both for trade and military strength; and being an important point of concentration on the west, it was the scene of frequent conflicts, and repeatedly changed hands during the wars of Scottish independence, in the time of the Edwards and the Bruces. Here Edward I. fixed a powerful garrison, and here the patriotic exploits of Sir William Wallace commenced.

When Scotland was over-run by Oliver Cromwell, he fixed upon it as the site of one of the four forts which he built to command the country. This fortification, termed the Citadel, enclosed an area of about ten or twelve acres, including the Church of St John. The Tower (which only remains) is a venerable relict, founded in the twelfth century, and dedicated to St John the Baptist. The church itself was built in the form of a cross. In 1560 it fell into the hands of the reformed clergy, of whom was the Rev. John Welsh, son-in-law of John Knox the Reformer. The Scottish Parliament met here and confirmed the title of Robert Bruce to the throne. When the Protector, in 1652, took possession of it, turning the Church into a Storehouse, he indemnifying the inhabitants for the seizure by contributing a 1000 merks (Scots) towards the erection of the present Old Church, on the site of a former Franciscan Monastery. The Citadel was purchased in 1853 by Mr John Millar, the present occupier of the Tower.

Wallace Tower.—A Gothic structure 113 feet high, erected on the site of a former one which was taken down about 1830. It was designed by a Mr Hamilton, and cost about £1400. It has always been associated with the name of Sir William Wallace. A statue of the renowned chief, cut by Tom, the famed sculptor of "Tam o' Shanter and Souter Jo'hanny," occupies a niche in front. The cost of the statue was 120 guineas, and the money was subscribed in a fortnight, chiefly through the exertions of Mr Auld, Doonbrae (Tom's chief patron). A figure of less pretensions, cut by Mr Reid of Glasgow, stands in a niche of the Scotch baronial building at the east end of Newmarket Street, placed there in 1810 by Henry Cowan, to replace an old representation of the head of Wallace which had fallen into decay. This effigy was originally erected there to commemorate the sheltering of Wallace from his enemies under this roof.

The Old Bridge was built in the reign of Alexander III. (1249-1284) by Isobel Lowe and her sister, two maiden ladies, who, tradition states, spent their fortune on the undertaking. In 1877 the heavy floods undermined the foundations of the New Brig, referred to by Burns, and the present New Bridge was built on the same site. Victoria Bridge, erected in 1897. Burns Statue unveiled, 1891. Burns Monument built, 1820. The Town's Building, with a spire 226 feet high, erected 1828, cost £14,000, and greatly enlarged in 1881. Town Hall destroyed by fire on 1st July, 1897. The County Buildings, modelled after the Temple of Isis in Rome, completed in 1822, costing upwards of £30,000. The Ayr Academy was founded chiefly on a bequest of £1000 left for educational purposes in the year 1790 by Mr Fergusson of Doonholm. This sum was supplemented by private subscriptions of £6585. The cost of erection was £2837, and the balance of the fund was vested in Government securities. A charter was obtained in 1798, under which the management was committed to seven directors, annually chosen from among the Magistrates and Town Council. Since 1872 the Academy has come under the Education Act, and is now managed by the School Board.

Newton-upon-Ayr is of very ancient erection, owing its privileges to Robert Bruce, who, upon being attacked by leprosy, came to reside in it, and was induced to establish a lazaret-house to confer considerable favours on the town. Newton and Wallace-town were comprehended within the Parliamentary Burgh of Ayr in 1832. The Municipal Burgh was in 1873 rendered conterminous with the Parliamentary, and again extended in 1885.

Population of the Municipal Burgh of Ayr in 1881, 20,821; in 1891, 24,800; an increase in ten years of 3,979. Estimated increase since 1891, 1700. Municipal constituency in 1899-1900, 4690, including 878 females.

Inhabited houses in 1891, 5100; Police estimate in 1900, 6970. Annual value of real property, exclusive of railways, in 1890 was £120,949; in 1900, £161,485 (an increase in ten years of £40,536). Annual value of railways in 1900, £7,485; rateable value, £168,967.

This Burgh, with Irvine, Campbeltown, Inveraray, and Oban, returns one Member to Parliament. Ayr is the returning Burgh.

Parliament constituency of the Burghs in 1899:—Ayr, 3654; Campbeltown, 836; Inveraray, 117; Irvine, 1468; Oban, 744—total, 6819. Member for Ayr Burghs—Charles Orr-Ewing, Esq. Votes polled at General Election in 1895—C. L. Orr-Ewing, Esq., 3057; William Birkmyre, Esq., 2722.

AYRSHIRE.

This county, which is about 60 miles in length and 26 in breadth, containing 1128 square miles, or 722,229 acres, comprises the districts of Carrick, lying on the south of the Doon; Kyle, between the Rivers Doon and Irvine; and Cunningham, north of the River Irvine. These divisions, although abolished by statute in 1748, still continue to be recognised in statistical descriptions of the county. The surface undulates, reaching no great elevation, except in the S. and S.-E., which are somewhat mountainous, while there are few hills on the N. It is famous for its valuable breed of cows, and rich, yet mild, cheese known by the name of Dunlop.

Among the antiquities of Ayrshire are the cairns of Galston and Lorn; Camps, supposed to be Danish, at Dundonald, and on the hill of Knockgeorgan, near Ardrossan; the Castles of Loch Doon, Turnberry, Dundonald, Portincross, etc.; the Abbeys of Crossraguel and Kilwinning; and the Kirk of Alloway, immortalised by Burns, who was born in a cottage a quarter of a mile distant, on 25th January, 1759, where upwards of 50,000 admirers annually pay homage to his immortal memory.

The principal rivers are the Ayr, Doon, Girvan, Stinchar, Irvine, and Garnock.

It was inhabited in the time of Agricola (first century), by the Damnonci, with whom were afterwards mixed the Scots from the opposite coast of Kintyre, and during the religious persecutions of the Stuarts it was a stronghold of the Covenanters.

The valued rents in 1674 were £191,605 Scots, or £15,967 sterling. The new valuation (including railways) for 1899-1900 is £1,229,844. Total assessments per pound, exclusive of road and public health rates, for 1899,1900, 3 11-16d. The population in 1891 was 226,386; in 1881, 217,630, an increase in ten years of 8756. The inhabited houses in 1891 were 45,265.

Parliamentary constituency in 1899-1900:—For South Ayrshire 15,941; for North Ayrshire, 13,657.

Votes polled at the General Election:—South Ayrshire:—Sir William Arrol (U.), 6875; Eugene Wason, Esq. (L.), 6325. North Ayrshire:—Hon. Thomas H. A. E. Cochrane, Esq. (U.), 5612; William Robertson, Esq. (L.), 4902.

The rate of postage to be prepaid on Inland Letters is:—For a letter not exceeding 4 oz. 1d, and so on at the rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ d for every additional 2 oz. Unpaid letters are charged double postage on delivery, and deficient postage double the deficiency.

Letters may not exceed in size 24 by 12 by 12 inches, unless to or from Government Offices.

RE-DIRECTION.—No charge is made for re-directing Letters, Post Cards, Books, or Newspapers, whether done by a Post Office official or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided the letter or packet is re-posted not later than the day following delivery (Sundays and Bank Holidays excluded), and it does not appear to have been opened; if posted later, unpaid rates will be charged. Parcels, however, are subject, when re-directed, to an additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction.

Letters, when once posted, cannot be given back upon any pretence whatever, but must be forwarded to the person to whom they are addressed.

Letters containing articles of a perishable or dangerous nature, or anything that might prove injurious to the other letters, are not forwarded, but sent to the Returned Letter Office.

REGISTRATION.—Any Letter, Book, Packet, Parcel, etc., can be Registered on payment of the Registration fee in addition to the postage. The fee for Registration, which also secures Compensation in the case of loss or damage, is 2d for £5, 3d for £10, and a 1d additional for every £10 up to £120. Compensation to the extent of £2 only will be given in the case of a letter containing coin, whatever may be the amount of coin in the letter. Such letter or packet requires to be handed over the counter and a receipt obtained. If it be desired to obtain Compensation for damages, the letter must bear the words "Fragile—With Care."

NEWSPAPERS.

All Newspapers Registered at the General Post Office, London, printed and published in the United Kingdom at intervals not exceeding seven days, may be sent by post singly or in a packet, within the United Kingdom, for a postage of One Halfpenny for each Newspaper, but a packet containing two or more registered papers is not chargeable with a higher rate than a book packet of the same weight. No Newspapers must bear on any part of it words of the nature of a letter. No packet of Newspapers must exceed 14lb. in weight, 2 feet in length, and one foot in width or depth.

Amounts to the extent of Fivepence may be made up by affixing postage stamps.

Payment of Postal Orders can also be obtained at Constantinople, Gibraltar, Hong-Kong, India, Malta, Newfoundland, and Straits Settlements.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.—Every Money Order Office, being a Post Office Savings Bank, receives deposits of One Shilling (or 12 Penny Stamps on an official form), or any number of Pounds and Shillings from any depositor, provided the sums deposited do not exceed £50 in any one year, and the total amount standing in the depositor's name does not exceed £200 inclusive of interest—interest at the rate of £2 10s per cent. per annum.

INVESTMENTS IN GOVERNMENT STOCKS.—Any depositor in a Savings Bank who desires to Invest a certain sum in Government Stocks must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Postal Savings Bank. The sum invested shall not be less than 1s, and shall not exceed £200. The whole amount of Stock credited to any one account shall not exceed £500 Stock.

The sender of a Parcel is required to fill up a Custom House declaration giving an accurate statement of the contents and value, date of posting, and sender's name and address. The nett. weight of the various articles in a parcel should, if possible, be given, and any other particulars which would facilitate the assessment of Customs Duty which is collected on delivery.

In addition to Customs Duty, a charge of 6d is made on all dutiable Parcels entering Cape Colony and Natal, 1s for British Bechuanaland, and 1s 6d for the Bechuanaland Protectorate, Mashonaland, Orange Free State, and Transvaal. In Mexico the charge is 5 cents for 1lb., and 1 cent for every 2 oz. additional. The Insured Parcels have all the safeguards of the Registration System, and, subject to the Post Office regulations, Compensation will be paid if they are lost or damaged in the post. To secure Compensation up to £12, the fee is 5d £24, $7\frac{1}{2}$ d; £36, 10d, &c., &c.

THE BEST THAT MONEY CAN BUY.

W A S H I N G D A Y .

The antiquated and painfully laborious system of employing Soap as a Cleanser is gradually being abandoned. The public are discovering that those employing Soap by itself as a Cleanser consign themselves to hard labour. It is HARD LABOUR with Soap that Cleanses, NOT SOAP and no labour. On a usual Soap washing day every home comfort in humble spheres has to be sacrificed. The anxious mother is up at dawn, the noise and bustle wake the little ones, who squall, the breakfast is late, the father out of sorts, everything gets 'topselteerie,' and the washing goes on in chaos and confusion. Hence the public demand for a safe and reliable cleanser that will Do THE WORK.
